

CASSS, an International Separation Science Society (USA)

CASSS will provide a limited number of travel grants for Ph.D. candidates and academic postdocs presenting posters and/or talks at HPLC 2018 in Washington, DC. Interested candidates must be the first author and presenter at the conference. All applicants must be current graduate students enrolled in a program or postdoctoral researchers working in a discipline applicable to biopharmaceutical sciences, including protein and nucleic acid therapeutics, vaccines, cell therapy, and gene therapy, etc., - as well as the application of chromatographic and electrophoretic separation methods within the field. Students and postdocs may apply on the CASSS.org website. Please fill out the form in its entirety, and be prepared to attach copies (in PDF format) of your: a) abstract, b) a letter of recommendation from your advisor; and c) proof of student or postdoc status. Only registered students and postdocs are eligible to receive the funds. Deadline for submission of the applications is April 20, 2018. Selected candidates will be notified within 3 weeks after the deadline. Apply HERE
